

VOCABULARY get

a) Write from A – G with the correct meaning of GET in each sentence.

1. I usually get home around 7:00 p.m.
2. Did you get my message yesterday?
3. We need to get some milk before we go home.
4. She gets nervous before important exams.
5. I got a new laptop for my birthday.
6. If we don't hurry, we'll miss the train. Let's get a taxi.
7. My sister gets along well with everyone at her new school.
8. He finally got a better position at work.
9. What time did you get to the airport?
10. I get what you mean.
11. I didn't get the email until this morning.

- A. receive
- B. arrive
- C. become
- D. buy
- E. obtain
- F. catch / take
- G. have a good relationship
- H. understand

Complete the sentences with the phrases in the box

Get a new pair | weight | get sick | got | get some | getting | get

1. Spring is here! The days are _____ warmer.
2. Send her the birthday present today so she can _____ it tomorrow.
3. My boots are very old. I'm going to _____ on Friday.
4. There's no bread at home. Could you _____ on your way from work?
5. I applied for the job and finally I _____ it.
6. Peter eats too much and he is getting _____. He she should to stop soon, otherwise, he'll _____.

Complete the sentences with the phrases in the box

get on | gotten | get the subway | get off | got divorced | get along | get
| get my email | got | get home

1. Did you _____?

B: Yes, I replied this morning.

2. A: What time did you _____?

B: Around 11 p.m.

3. A: I love your new phone!

B: Thanks! I _____ it last week.

4. A: I think we lost the chance to go to the concert.

B: Don't worry. I have already _____ my ticket online.

5. A: How are you going to the city center?

B: I'll _____.

6. A: Do you like your partners?

B: Yes, I _____ with them really well. We hang out together on weekends.

7. A: Do you _____ what I'm saying?

B: Yes, thank you for repeating it.

8. A: Look, here comes our bus! Let's _____.

B: Wait, let me check the map. Do we _____ at the next stop?

A: No, in three stops.

9. A: Is your sister still married?

B: No, she _____ two years ago.