

Listening Practice:

What Makes a Good Friend?

Good friends make life brighter

Task 1. Pre-listening Prediction (Track 01)

You will hear an announcement about writing an article for a website. Tick (✓) FOUR topics you think the announcement will include:

- ☐ what the article should be about
- ☐ where people can read the article
- ☐ how many words the article should be
- ☐ examples of what to include
- ☐ when the article should be finished

Task 2. Exam Practice (Listening Part 3)

Listen to the audio again. For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one or two words, or a number.

Write an article about friendship

- 1 The article should be about how _____ is changing people's friendships.
- 2 Include reasons for reading friends' _____ on their own web pages.
- 3 Write about the _____ of a good friend you have.
- 4 Explain a _____ where an online or 'real' friend gave their help.
- 5 Talk about the different kinds of _____ you have with friends.
- 6 Your article should not be longer than _____ words.

Real friends support you — online and offline

Good friends make a difference