

Choose the correct option.

- 1) Objects in space, like Earth or Mars, that move around a star.
 - A) Planets
 - B) Asteroids
 - C) Satellites
- 2) You can see many of these shining at night.
 - A) Planets
 - B) The stars
 - C) The moon
- 3) Rocky objects that travel through space.
 - A) Satellites
 - B) Asteroids
 - C) Planets
- 4) The layer of gases around a planet.
 - A) The universe
 - B) The orbit
 - C) The atmosphere
- 5) The path an object follows around another object in space.
 - A) The orbit
 - B) A galaxy
 - C) The atmosphere
- 6) Everything that exists in space, including stars, planets and galaxies.
 - A) The solar system
 - B) The universe
 - C) A galaxy
- 7) The Sun and all the objects that move around it.
 - A) A galaxy
 - B) The universe
 - C) The solar system
- 8) A very large group of stars, gas and dust.
 - A) A galaxy
 - B) The solar system
 - C) The universe
- 9) Objects that move around a planet. They can be natural or man-made.
 - A) Asteroids
 - B) Satellites
 - C) The stars
- 10) You can usually see it in the sky at night.
 - A) Planets
 - B) Asteroids
 - C) The moon