Benny the Dolphin

Last summer, Isaac and his brother Sebas visited the Pacific Ocean with their teacher, T. Carli. They went on a boat trip near Coco Island. There, they saw a friendly dolphin named Benny.

Benny swam through the water and jumped above the waves. The children watched him with excitement. They took pictures with a camera and wrote notes in a notebook. A guide told them that dolphins are intelligent animals that live in groups called pods.

At the end of the day, Isaac and Sebas shared their stories with their family and friends. Everyone loved learning about Benny and his ocean home.
