

Name

Class

No.

แบบทดสอบ: The fattiest organ in the human body

Reading Comprehension

Instructions: Choose the correct answer.

1. What is the passage mainly about?

- a. The fattiest organ in the human body
- b. Brain functions
- c. The importance of brain neurons
- d. Myelin sheath composition

2. Which word is the closest in meaning to “astronomical” (paragraph 3)?

- a. planetary
- b. enormous
- c. celestial
- d. insignificant

3. According to the passage, what causes the brain to be fat?

- a. neurons
- b. membrane
- c. myelin sheath
- d. fatty acids

4. Which of the following is NOT the organ mentioned in the passage?

- a. lungs
- b. liver
- c. pancreas
- d. heart

5. According to the passage, which of the following is TRUE?

- a. The brain consists of around 70% fat.
- b. Each organ performs a particular function in human body.
- c. A myelin sheath is a layer covered by a nerve fiber.
- d. The fattiest human brain has more than 100 billion neurons.

Instructions: Complete each sentence with the correct word from the box.

molecules	membrane	self-contained
neurons	tissues

1. An organ is a group of _____ that work together to perform a particular function.
2. The brain contains about 100 billion _____ that send and receive messages.
3. Each neuron has a thin, double-layered _____ made of fatty acids.
4. Fatty acids are important _____ that help the brain function properly.
5. An organ is described as _____ because it is complete and independent as a group of tissues.

