

THE 90'S VS TODAY

Instructions: Read each conversation carefully. Complete each gap with still, anymore, used to, didn't use to y Did ... use to...?

CONVERSATION 1

Samantha: My parents say communication was very different in the 1990s.

Alex: Yes. People _____ write letters or call their friends on the telephone.

Samantha: _____ send messages to their friends using cell phones?

Alex: Not really. Cell phones were not as common as they are today.

Samantha: People _____ use social media because social media didn't exist like it does today.

Alex: Exactly. Today, people _____ use phones to communicate with friends and family every day.

Samantha: Do people write letters _____?

Alex: Some people do, but most people don't write letters _____.

Samantha: So, communication today is faster than communication in the 90s.

Alex: Yes. And smartphones are probably the most convenient communication tools today.

CONVERSATION 2

Diego: What did teenagers do for fun in the 1990s?

Emma: They _____ watch TV, listen to CDs, and go to the movies.

Diego: _____ download music from the internet?

Emma: No, they _____ download music because the internet was very different.

Diego: My parents _____ buy CDs when they were young.

Emma: Do people buy CDs _____?

Diego: Some people do, but most people don't buy CDs _____.
They usually listen to music online.

Emma: Music is easier to access today than in the 90s.

Diego: Yes. Streaming services give people access to millions of songs. They are one of the the most popular ways to listen to music today.

