

FICTION: DRAMA AND STORYTELLING

Worksheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Complete all three sections. Read each question carefully.

Section I – Multiple Choice

1. What are characters?

- A. The place where a story happens
- B. The people, animals, or beings in a story
- C. The message of a story
- D. The sequence of events

2. What does the setting describe?

- A. The characters' dialogue
- B. The main problem
- C. The time and place of a story
- D. The ending

3. What is the plot?

- A. The sequence of events in a story
- B. A conversation between characters
- C. The lesson learned
- D. The location only

4. What is conflict?

- A. The final scene
- B. The main problem or struggle
- C. The background music
- D. The title

5. What is dialogue?

- A. The actions of a character
- B. The time of the story
- C. A conversation between characters
- D. The theme

Section II – True or False

6. The setting can include the time and place of a story. _____

7. Conflict makes a story less interesting by removing tension. _____
8. Dialogue allows characters to communicate with each other. _____
9. Resolution refers to how the main conflict is solved or concluded. _____
10. The theme is only the physical location where a story happens. _____

Section III – Match the Elements

Draw a line to match each element in Column A with its correct definition in Column B.

Column A	Column B
11. Characters	A. The main idea or message of a story.
12. Action	B. The conversation between characters.
13. Theme	C. What characters do throughout the story.
14. Dialogue	D. The people, animals, or beings who participate in a story.
15. Resolution	E. The part where the main conflict is solved or concluded.

Extra: In one sentence, explain why storytelling is important in literature.
