The Legend of Tangkuban Perahu

Long ago, in West Java, there lived a beautiful woman named Dayang Sumbi. She lived near a green forest and loved nature. Dayang Sumbi had a son named Sangkuriang. He was a brave boy who loved exploring the forest with his dog, Tumang.

One day, Sangkuriang went hunting with Tumang. He became angry because Tumang did not help him. In his anger, he hurt Tumang. When Dayang Sumbi learned about it, she became very angry and sent Sangkuriang away from home. Many years later, Sangkuriang returned home. He met Dayang Sumbi but did not recognize her. He fell in love with her and wanted to marry her. Dayang Sumbi realized that Sangkuriang was her son. She gave him a difficult task. He had to build a huge lake and a large boat in one night. Sangkuriang worked very hard. He almost finished the task before sunrise.

Dayang Sumbi tricked Sangkuriang into thinking that morning had come. Sangkuriang became angry because he could not finish the boat. He kicked the unfinished boat, and it landed upside down. According to the legend, the boat became Mount Tangkuban Perahu.
