

 ENGLISH GRAMMAR & INDONESIAN BIODIVERSITY

Passive Voice Challenge: Indonesian Fauna

Transform active sentences into simple present passive sentences while learning about Indonesia's unique wildlife!

Subject: English LanguageTopic: Simple Present PassiveTotal Items: 20 Questions

GRAMMAR CHEAT SHEET: Simple Present Passive Voice

Affirmative (+)

S + am/is/are + V3 (+ by O)

Negative (-)

S + am/is/are + NOT + V3

Interrogative (?)

Am/Is/Are + S + V3 (+ by O)?

A Part 1: Affirmative Sentences (Items 1–10)

1. Active Voice

The Komodo dragon eats deer and water buffaloes.

Passive Voice:

2. Active Voice

Orangutans climb tall trees in Kalimantan's rainforests.

Passive Voice:

3. Active Voice

Tourists watch the Bird of Paradise's mating dance in Papua.

Passive Voice:

4. Active Voice

The Sumatran tiger protects its cubs from predators.

Passive Voice:

5. Active Voice

Farmers occasionally kill Javan Rhinos for their horns.

Passive Voice:

6. Active Voice

The local people nickname the Proboscis Monkey "Monyet Belanda".

Passive Voice:

7. Active Voice

The Irrawaddy Dolphin navigates the Mahakam River using echolocation.

Passive Voice:

8. Active Voice

Tarsiers eat small insects like crickets and beetles at night.

Passive Voice:

9. Active Voice

Conservationists manage specific areas to protect Indonesian endemic fauna.

Passive Voice:

10. Active Voice

My teacher uses images of Indonesian animals for the lesson.

Passive Voice:

BPart 2: Negative Sentences (Items 11–15)*11. Active Voice

The Sumatran tiger does not hunt birds.

Passive Voice:

12. Active Voice

Tourists do not feed the Komodo dragons in the national park.

Passive Voice:

13. Active Voice

Local people do not catch Tarsiers during the day.

Passive Voice:

14. Active Voice

Proboscis monkeys do not eat ripe fruits in the wild.

Passive Voice:

15. Active Voice

Conservationists do not release Javan Rhinos outside the sanctuary.

Passive Voice:

Part 3: Interrogative Sentences (Items 16–20)

16. Active Voice

Does the Komodo dragon swallow its prey whole?

Passive Voice:

17. Active Voice

Do tourists observe the rare Javan Rhinos in Ujung Kulon?

Passive Voice:

18. Active Voice

Does the male Bird-of-Paradise display colorful feathers to attract females?

Passive Voice:

19. Active Voice

Do local fishermen protect the Irrawaddy Dolphins in the Mahakam River?

Passive Voice:

20. Active Voice

Does the Sumatran tiger hunt large mammals at night?

Passive Voice:
