MY FAVORITE ACTOR

My Favorite Actor

My favorite actor is Tom Holland, who is a British actor famous for playing Spider-Man. He was born in London, England, in 1996. He started acting when he was a child and became famous after appearing in Spider-Man movies.

Tom is an actor who works in movies and also enjoys dancing and playing sports. He is known for his energetic personality and his friendly smile. Many people think his movies are exciting, especially the action scenes. Some scenes can be frightening, but they are usually fun to watch.

I like Tom Holland because he is an actor that works hard and has played many interesting characters. I think he is very talented, and I am always excited when I watch one of his movies.

RELATIVE CLAUSES WITH WHO AND THAT

We use relative clauses to give more information about a person or thing.

WHO: Use who for people.

- Tom Holland is an actor who plays Spider-Man.
- She is a singer who has many fans.
- I like actors who are funny.

THAT: Use that for people or things in defining relative clauses.

- Tom is an actor that works in many movies.
- This is the movie that I watched yesterday.
- She is an actress that many people know.

We use -ing adjectives to describe the person, thing, movie, activity, etc. that causes a feeling.

- The movie is exciting.
- The story is interesting.
- The film is frightening.

We use -ed adjectives to describe how a person feels.

- I am excited about the movie.
- She is interested in the story.
- They are frightened by the film.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

GRAMMAR PRACTICE

A. WHO OR THAT? Choose who or that.

1. Leonardo DiCaprio is an actor _____ has appeared in many famous movies.
2. This is the movie _____ won an Oscar.
3. Emma Watson is an actress _____ played Hermione.
4. I like movies _____ have happy endings.
5. Chris Hemsworth is an actor _____ plays Thor.
6. This is the character _____ everyone remembers.
7. She is a singer _____ also acts in movies.
8. I watched a film _____ was very funny.

B. JOIN THE SENTENCES: Combine the sentences using who or that.

Example:
Tom Holland is an actor. He plays Spider-Man. → Tom Holland is an actor who plays Spider-Man.

1. Zendaya is an actress. She appears in Spider-Man movies. → _____
2. This is a movie. It has an interesting story. → _____
3. Robert Downey Jr. is an actor. He plays Iron Man. → _____
4. I watched a movie. The movie was very exciting. → _____
5. She is an actress. She has won many awards. → _____

C. -ED OR -ING?: Choose the correct adjective.

1. The action movie was excited / exciting.
2. I was excited / exciting to see my favorite actor.
3. The horror movie was frightened / frightening.
4. My little brother was frightened / frightening during the movie.
5. The story was interested / interesting.
6. We were very interested / interesting in the story.
7. The movie was bored / boring.
8. I was bored / boring because the movie was too long.

E. WRITE ABOUT YOUR FAVORITE ACTOR

My favorite actor:

_____

_____

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS