READING PASSAGE

Read the text carefully before answering Sections 5 and 6.

THE LIFE AND FUTURE PLANS OF ARTHUR JENKINS

Arthur Jenkins is a thirty-two-year-old high school teacher who lives in a quiet town in the north of England. He enjoys his job very much, but he has many ambitious goals for the upcoming year. First, Arthur would like to change his lifestyle. He wants to spend more time outdoors because he sits in a classroom all day. Therefore, in the spring, he is going to join a local running club and participate in a marathon in July.

Furthermore, Arthur is going to plan a special celebration for his mother. She is going to celebrate her sixtieth birthday on the fifteenth of October. Arthur would like to invite all her old friends from university. He is going to organize a big party at a nice Italian restaurant near the river. He is going to order a chocolate cake, buy fruit drinks, and hire a band to play live music. He is not going to tell his mother about the event because it is a complete surprise.

Finally, Arthur would love to travel to South America in the winter. He is going to visit Peru and see ancient historical monuments. He is going to stay there for a fortnight. He wants to practice his Spanish with local people and learn how to cook traditional meals. He is saving money now because international travel is expensive.
