

Past Simple vs. Past Participle

Fill in the blank using either the Past Simple (for something that finished at a specific past time) or the Past Participle.

*Do not use capital letters.

1. Yesterday morning, Maya _____ (spread) sweet strawberry jam on her toast.
2. Look! The little caterpillar has _____ (become) a beautiful butterfly.
3. Have you ever _____ (be) to the giant zoo in the city?
4. Timmy fell on the playground during recess and _____ (hurt) his knee.
5. Pop! The bright red balloon has just _____ (burst)!
6. Before going outside to play, the teacher _____ (shut) the classroom door.
7. We _____ (have) a wonderful time playing at the park yesterday.
8. How much pocket money has that new toy car _____ (cost)?
9. Last night, Dad _____ (read) us a funny bedtime story about a dragon.
10. All of my friends have _____ (come) over to my house to celebrate!