

TEST TWO – FINAL

PART A. CHOOSE “HAVE or HAS” AND THE RIGHT VERSION OF THE VERB. (12)

My friend Jessica (1) (2) many extraordinary events during her life. For example, she and her husband (3) (4) deep caves underground, and she told me that they (5) (6) spiders the size of a soccer ball, but those animals (7) (8) to attack them. On the contrary, they were absolutely friendly and gentle. Recently, Jessica (9) (10) me if I would like to come along to one of her adventures, but I (11) (12) up my mind yet.

PART B. CHOOSE (A) or (B) TO INDICATE THE CORRECT QUESTION OR SENTENCE. (8)

13. Please, can you tell me if is there a conference in this hotel now? (A)

Please, can you tell me if there is a conference in this hotel now? (B)

14. Hey Sam, do you have any idea why did mom not have breakfast this morning? (A)

Hey Sam, do you have any idea why mom didn't have breakfast this morning? (B)

15. I wonder why all my friends have decided to join the army. (A)

I wonder why have all my friends decided to join the army. (B)

16. I have no idea if is Jenny applying for a better job in Houston. (A)

I have no idea if Jenny is applying for a better job in Houston. (B)

17. Please, could you tell us when the first animated movie was filmed? (A)

Please, could you tell us when was the first animated movie filmed? (B)

18. Hey Gina, do you remember where can I buy more of this medicine? (A)

Hey Gina, do you remember where I can buy more of this medicine? (B)

19. Please, do you know if the weather has changed too much recently? (A)

Please, do you know if has the weather changed too much recently? (B)

20. I can't explain you why do we need to sleep every night. (A)

I can't explain you why we need to sleep every night. (B)

PART C. WRITE THE VERB IN PARENTHESES IN “ing” OR “ed” TO TRANSFORM IT INTO AN ADJECTIVE. (10)

E.g., After a long day at work, my mom feels very TIRED. (TIRE)

21. The accident was (SHOCK) to everybody on the train.
22. John didn't pass his driving test for second time. So, he felt (FRUSTRATE)
23. The noise of traffic is (ANNOY) every morning. I can't stand it anymore!
24. It has been (INTEREST) to talk to you these days. Thank you.
25. I can't understand my physics lessons. Actually, I feel very (CONFUSE)
26. Paula loves to travel by plane. She says it is very (EXCITE)
27. We were very (EMBARRASS) when we lost the game.
28. After taking a shower, I feel very (RELAX)
29. Videogames are (AMAZE). We love to play them!
30. My mom is not (WORRY) about me. I am a great boy.

PART D. CHOOSE THE VERB THAT FITS IN THE SENTENCES.

31. Sorry Mr. Rogers. It was all my fault! I breaking your windows.
32. It is my morning routine. I shaving before breakfast.
33. Rita is very impatient. She waiting for the bus. She always takes a taxi.
34. Max visiting new countries when he is on vacation.
35. When I doing all my homework, I could sit and play videogames the whole afternoon.
36. The food from this restaurant is amazing. We are hungry. Yummy! We eating lasagna.
37. The rules of this company are wrong, and I breaking them.
38. Tomorrow is your first day at the company. You working in the admissions department.
39. You can't imagine how much we you solving this problem for us. Thank you!
40. Patty cleaning the kitchen. She really detests that part of the housework.