

1 Choose the correct words.

- 1 How many / much / some milk is there?
- 2 There isn't any / some / many coffee in the jar.
- 3 There aren't any / are one or two / are a bit of apples in the fridge. There aren't many.
- 4 We've got much / many / a lot of chocolate! We've got ten bars.
- 5 There are much / some / any oranges in the bag.
- 6 There aren't any / some / a bit bottles of shampoo in the bathroom.
- 7 There aren't any / are a few / are a bit of crisps in the packet. There aren't many.
- 8 We've got much / many / a lot of washing powder! We've got six boxes.
- 9 How many / much / some bars of soap are there?
- 10 There isn't a bit / any / much water in the bottle. It's empty.

2 Complete the sentences with pollution words.

- 1 He will _____ the old newspapers on the fire.
- 2 If we cut down too many trees, we will _____ our forests.
- 3 That dirty rubbish will _____ the river and make it dirty.
- 4 We _____ lots of rubbish and it goes to the rubbish tip.
- 5 You can _____ glass bottles to make new bottles and jars.

3 Complete the sentences. Use where, which or who and an idea from the box.

does experiments has got eight legs people play sport studies you sleep

- 1 A scientist is a person _____
- 2 A bedroom is a place _____
- 3 A spider is an animal _____
- 4 A stadium is a place _____
- 5 A student is someone _____