

Name:	Grade:	Date:
-------	--------	-------

Criteria	Performance
Extract the macropropositions at both the literal and inferential levels to identify cause and effect relationships, and implicit information that support meaning construction.

1. Answer the following questions according to the reading of the little prince.

1. Why does the Little Prince leave his planet?

- a. He wants to become a king.
- b. He wants to explore and understand the universe.
- c. He is looking for another rose.
- d. He wants to become a businessman.

2. Why does the Little Prince become sad when he sees the roses on Earth?

- a. He doesn't like roses anymore.
- b. He realizes that his rose is not the only rose in the universe.
- c. The roses don't have thorns.
- d. He wants to take all the roses home.

3. Why does the fox want the Little Prince to "tame" him?

- a. Because he wants food.
- b. Because he wants to become important.
- c. Because he wants to create a special relationship with him.
- d. Because he wants to visit the Little Prince's planet.

4. What happens because the Little Prince spends time taking care of his rose?

- a. The rose becomes important and special to him.
- b. The rose becomes the only rose in the universe.
- c. The Little Prince forgets about his planet.
- d. The rose becomes dangerous.

5. The Little Prince leaves his planet. What events or feelings lead to this decision?

6. The Little Prince sees thousands of roses on Earth. Why does this make him feel sad?

7. The Little Prince spends time with the fox. How does this change the way he understands his own rose?

8. The Little Prince says that his rose is unique to him although there are thousands of roses on Earth. What does this tell us about what makes someone or something special?

9. Read the question and answer.

- a. The Little Prince has only one rose on his planet, but Earth has thousands of roses.

Why does his rose remain special to him?

Evidence: _____

My inference: _____

- b. The Little Prince visits several adults, and each one is focused on something different.

What common characteristic do many of these adults have?

10. EXTRA POINTS. Make a creative drawing of your favorite part of the book.

