Cristiano Ronaldo dos Santos Aveiro (Cristiano Ronaldo) was born on 5 February 1985 in Funchal, Madeira, Portugal into a very poor family. He is a very famous Portuguese football player and the most expensive player in the world. Ronaldo is now the face of football and becomes one of the greatest football players in the world.

Cristiano Ronaldo has an athletic body with a height of 186 centimeters and weighs 83 kilogram. His skin color is olive with a beardless face and distinctive smile. He has round, light brown eyes. His short, dark brown and wavy hair along with his round face makes him look masculine and handsome.

His favorite color is white and he loves to wear a watch whenever he goes out with his family and friends. This makes him very fashionable.

He is very kind and thoughtful. I found on the internet that his blood type is probably A negative. Sometimes he gives his blood to the blood bank so that people who need the same blood type as his will be able to use it.

It is not the only good thing that I like about him. He is very fit and loves to maintain his health by not smoking. He does not like to drink alcoholic drinks and also there is no tattoo on his body as well. He believes that a tattoo will not be good for the blood that he donates to the blood bank.

On the night before the Hindu New Year, we got to see the men set the Ogoh-ogoh upon bamboo platforms. They then hoisted the Ogoh-Ogoh up on their shoulders and danced with them. They brought the Ogoh-Ogoh through the streets and spun them around to confuse the evil spirits. The men also played loud music to chase the evil spirits away before the new year. Finally, they burnt the Ogoh-Ogoh at the end of the night.

Unfortunately. the streets got so crowded that sometimes we were uncomfortable during the celebration. However, we felt very happy and excited watching the parade. It's no exaggeration to say that it was our first experience seeing such a spectacle. What a great parade!
