

Questions

1. Running down the street, the backpack bounced on my shoulders.
2. She almost ate all the cookies.
3. Students who practice often improve quickly.
4. Walking through the museum, the paintings seemed fascinating.
5. I saw a squirrel wearing my pajamas.
6. The teacher said after lunch we would have a quiz.
7. After finishing the book, the movie was disappointing.
8. He nearly drove the car for three hours.
9. My brother promised on Saturday he would clean his room.
10. Looking out the window, the rain appeared heavy.

Part B: Multiple Choice

11. Which sentence contains a misplaced modifier?

- A. Running quickly, Sara caught the bus.
- B. I almost drank all the juice.
- C. After studying, Tom passed the test.
- D. Sara quickly caught the bus.

12. Which sentence contains a dangling modifier?

- A. The dog barked loudly.
- B. Walking to school, the backpack felt heavy.
- C. The students worked carefully.
- D. She finished her homework.

13. Which sentence contains a squinting modifier?

- A. The cat slept peacefully.
- B. We often eat pizza.
- C. Parents who volunteer frequently help schools.
- D. The students arrived early.

14. Which sentence is correct?

- A. Running across the field, the ball was kicked.
- B. Running across the field, Alex kicked the ball.
- C. Running across the field, the goal appeared.
- D. Running across the field, the game ended.

15.

What type is this?

"The principal announced before recess students would have an assembly."

- A. Misplaced
- B. Dangling
- C. Squinting
- D. Correct

16. What type is this?

"I gave a cookie to the girl with chocolate chips."

A. Misplaced B. Dangling C. Squinting D. Correct

17. What type is this?

"After cleaning the room, the TV was turned on."

A. Misplaced

B. Dangling

C. Squinting

D. Correct

18. Which is the best correction?

"I saw a dog in my pajamas."

A. In my pajamas, I saw a dog.

B. I saw in my pajamas a dog.

C. A dog saw my pajamas.

D. The dog wore my pajamas.

19. Which sentence is dangling?

A. After school, Maria played soccer.

B. Tired from the game, Maria rested.

C. Tired from the game, the couch looked comfortable.

D. Maria looked tired.

20. Which sentence contains a squinting modifier?

A. Players who train regularly improve.

B. Players regularly improve.

C. The players improved.

D. The players trained hard.