

WORKSHEET ACTIVITY

SIMPLE PAST TENSE

A story about a boy and his terrible week!

Read and answer the following questions.

The boy had a terrible week. He didn't sleep Sunday night because he watched a movie. His mother and father didn't hear because he was very quiet. Because he didn't sleep on Sunday night; on Monday he was asleep in class. He didn't hear the teacher talk about homework and a quiz, so he didn't do the homework for Tuesday, so the teacher gave him lots of homework for Wednesday. On Wednesday I gave the teacher the homework but I didn't know about the quiz on Thursday. The quiz was about English Writers; he didn't remember any writers. On Friday, he saw his quiz and he got a really bad grade. Now, it is Saturday and the boy is studying for a new quiz, but his friend, the robot, wanted to go to see a movie. Finally, the boy decided to go to see a movie about "basketball" with his friend, the robot.

A. Complete the sentences with affirmative or negative statements according to the reading. Remember the use of Regular and Irregular verbs.

Example:

The boy had (have) a terrible week.

The boy didn't sleep (sleep) on Sunday night.

1. The boy _____ (hear) the teacher talk about the homework and the quiz.
2. The boy _____ (know) about the quiz.
3. The boy _____ (get) a good grade in the quiz.
4. The boy _____ (remember) any writers in his quiz.
5. The boy and the robot _____ (go) to see a movie about "basketball."

B. Now, choose if the following statements are TRUE OR FALSE according to the reading.

- | | | |
|---|-------------|--------------|
| 1. The boy slept on Sunday night. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 2. The quiz was about Science. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 3. The teacher gave him a lot of homework for Friday. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 4. The boy and the robot watched a terror movie. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 5. The boy and the robot watched the movie on Sunday. | TRUE | FALSE |

By: Teacher Paola Córdova.