> A DAY IN EGYPT <

Last summer, Holly and her family went to Egypt for their summer holiday. They were staying at a hotel near the sea. One morning, they got on a bus and went into the desert.

At midday, they arrived at the pyramids. It was very hot and sunny, but Holly was excited. She wanted to see everything and take lots of photos.

After visiting the pyramids, the family met a friendly man with some camels. Holly decided to ride a camel. At first, she was a little frightened, so she held onto its head carefully.

The camel started walking slowly across the sand. Suddenly, it stopped and would not move. The man pulled it gently, and the camel started walking again.

Later, the family went to a restaurant for lunch. Holly was hungry after the camel ride, so she ate a delicious meal. She was tired at the end of the day, but she thought the holiday was wonderful.
