

1. Complete the chart with the correct form of the zero, first or second conditional. Choose the correct conditional and added to the end

If you _____ to be happy in the long term, _____ a job you love. (want / find)
If I _____ afford to take a flight into space, it _____ the best moment of my life. (can / be)
If you _____ more than you can afford, you _____ to get into debt. (spend / need)
If I _____ my homework before Friday evening, I _____ to enjoy the weekend more. (finish / be able to)
If I suddenly _____ a lot of money, I _____ my parents for a loan, but that's never going to happen. (win / ask)
If you _____ a lot of money in the stock market, you _____ a good profit if the economy grows. (invest / make)
If I _____ a million dollars tomorrow, I _____ a huge house by the beach. (find / buy)
If people _____ money every month, they _____ more secure during emergencies. (save / be)
If you _____ someone money, it's polite to _____ it back as soon as possible. (borrow / pay)
If Sarah _____ careful with her credit cards, she _____ into serious debt. (be / get)
If we _____ more money right now, we _____ afford that brand-new car. (have / can)
If you _____ a good bargain online, you _____ it immediately before it sells out. (find / buy)	