

Read the text for questions 1–5.

Yesterday was the last day of school. The students did many different activities. Everyone was excited about the activities. The concert was interesting because the band sang many different types of songs. Harry was bored because he didn't like concerts. He wanted to play badminton. Miss Jones was worried about the performance because she hoped the students could remember all the words to the songs.

1. Why was Harry bored?

- A. He didn't like badminton.
- B. He didn't like concerts.
- C. He was worried about the performance.
- D. He was tired after the concert.

2. Which sentence is grammatically correct?

- A. Harry was boring because he didn't like concerts.
- B. Harry was bored because he didn't like concerts.
- C. Harry was bored because the concert was bored.
- D. Harry was boring because the concert was interesting.

3. How did the students feel about the activities?

- A. They felt excited.
- B. They felt confused.
- C. They felt bored.
- D. They felt afraid.

4. The concert was interesting. The word “interesting” describes ...

- A. how Harry felt
- B. the concert
- C. Miss Jones
- D. the students

5. Which sentence uses the adjective correctly?

- A. Miss Jones was worrying about the performance.
- B. The performance was worried.
- C. Miss Jones was worried about the performance.
- D. The performance was worrying Miss Jones.

Read the situation for questions 6–10.

Matthew performed a dance routine with his friends. He forgot some of the dance moves, so he felt bad. His friends told him not to worry about it. After the performance, the boys carried many heavy snack boxes from the teachers' office. They felt tired. Some other children were swimming. They felt safe because the sports teacher was watching them.

6. Why did Matthew feel bad?

- A. He was tired.
- B. He forgot some dance moves.
- C. He didn't like swimming.
- D. He carried heavy snack boxes.

7. Which sentence is correct?

- A. Matthew felt bad because he forgot some dance moves.
- B. Matthew felt bad because the dance moves were bored.
- C. Matthew was bad because his friends were tired.
- D. Matthew felt boring after the performance.

8. Why did the boys feel tired?

- A. They were swimming.
- B. They watched the concert.
- C. They carried heavy snack boxes.
- D. They practiced English.

9. Choose the correct sentence.

- A. I am boring
- B. I am bored
- C. The class is bored
- D. The class felt bored

10. Which sentence has the correct use of -ed and -ing adjectives?

- A. The students were exciting because the activity was excited.
- B. The students were excited because the activity was exciting.
- C. The students were exciting because the activity was exciting.
- D. The students were excited because the activity was excited.

Read the text for questions 11–15.

Four students are preparing for a school competition. They are doing a science project together. They need to prepare some colored pencils and poster paper. They meet in the gym to work on their project. They want to win the prize, which is a trip to the zoo.

11. Where do the students meet?

- A. In the canteen.
- B. In the art room.
- C. In the gym.
- D. In the library.

12. What do the students need to prepare?

- A. Paints and books.
- B. A laptop and pictures.
- C. Colored pencils and poster paper.
- D. A bike and a presentation.

13. Which sentence is correct?

- A. They prepare the project by ourselves.
- B. They prepare the project by himself.
- C. They prepare the project by themselves.
- D. They prepare the project by herself.

14. The students want to win the prize. What is the prize?

- A. A beautiful art book.
- B. A new bike.
- C. A trip to the zoo.
- D. A new laptop.

15. Choose the correct sentence.

- A. I'll do it by yourself
- B. My mother cooks fried rice by herself
- C. Teacher teaches by themselves
- D. You go there by itself

Read the situation for questions 16–20.

There are three school projects. For the art project, three students work together in the art room. They need to prepare paints by themselves. For the history project, one student works at school. He needs a laptop to make a presentation. The students also ask their friends to help with different parts of the projects.

16. Where do the students do the art project?

- A. In the gym.
- B. In the art room.
- C. In the canteen.
- D. In the science room.

17. How do the students prepare the paints?

- A. By himself.
- B. By herself.
- C. By themselves.
- D. By itself.

18. What does the student need for the history project?

- A. Paints.
- B. Colored pencils.
- C. A laptop.
- D. A bike.

19. Which sentence is grammatically correct?

- A. The pizza is from Italy, isn't they?
- B. Nasi Goreng is from Indonesia, aren't it?
- C. Spaghetti are from Indonesia, isn't it?
- D. Sushi is from Japan, isn't it?

20. Complete the sentence: "The children wash the dishes by _____"

- A. Themself
- B. Themselves
- C. Itself
- D. Yourselves