A Trip to the Beach

Last Sunday, I went to the beach with my family. We went there in the morning by car.

When we arrived, I played in the sand and swam in the sea. The water was cool and the weather was nice. Then, we had lunch together. We ate fried chicken, rice, and some fruit.

In the afternoon, we took some pictures and walked along the beach. I also bought a small souvenir at a shop near the beach.

In the evening, we went home. I was tired but very happy. It was a fun day with my family.

Good memories ♥
