

Go to vs. Go V-ing

	Rules	Example
go to	+ Place	• We go to school every morning. • She went to the park yesterday. • They go to a restaurant on Fridays.
go	+ V-ing	• I go swimming in summer. • He goes shopping with his mom. • We go camping on weekends.
go	+ home + there	• Let's go home now. • They go there by bus.

Part A: Fill in the blanks with "go to", "go".

1. On hot summer days, we usually _____ swimming in the river.
2. Every morning at 7:00, my sister and I _____ school by bus.
3. Do you want to _____ shopping at the new department store tonight?
4. After the long party, everyone wanted to _____ home immediately.
5. We plan to _____ camping in the mountains.
6. The students _____ the library to read books.

Part B: Circle the correct word to complete each sentence.

1. My mom go (to the market / the market) every morning to buy fresh fruit.
2. My uncle likes to go (to fish / fishing) by the lake on Saturdays.
3. The sick student needs to go (to the hospital / the hospital) right now.
4. In winter, many people like to go (ski / skiing) in the snowy mountains.
5. Let's go (jogging / to jogging) in the park after dinner tonight.
6. They bought popcorn before they went (cinema / to the cinema) to watch a movie.