

4 Grammar in context Present Continuous for Future Arrangements

You can use the present continuous to talk about plans/arrangements for the future.

- Ali is going to the beach on Saturday.
- Kevin is working on his project on Friday.

Look at the table and write sentences about their future arrangements.

	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Omar		See the dentist			Meet a friend	Work on the English project	Play football
Fatma	Go to the gymnasium		Visit grandma		Fly to Dubai

1. Fatma is going to the gym on Sunday.

2.

3.

4.