Read the text and answer the questions.

Hi, I'm Cheng Sew and my dad is my favourite athlete. His name is Cheng Lee and he's from Kedah. He is a famous football player. He began playing when he was only 6 years old. My grandfather taught him how to play football when he was in Year 2. After a year, he was chosen as one of the players for his school football team.

Every evening, he would play football with his friends at the field opposite the school. He was always early for practice because he wanted to help his coach. People called him 'The Flash'. His friends said that he could run very fast and had good skill. There were times when he got hurt and could not join the football matches, but he never gave up. My grandmother made herbal soup to help him get better. My grandfather also taught him some exercises that could make him stronger.

One of my favourite event was when his team won the international football match in London. I was very proud of my father and I think he is the best football player in the world!
