

Present Perfect: Just, Already, and Yet

- ☐ Quick Rule Check: We use just for actions completed a short time ago, already for actions completed earlier than expected, and yet in negative sentences and questions (usually at the very end).

Part 1: Choose the Correct Adverb

Complete each sentence with just, already, or yet.

1. Has Danylo arrived at the sports hall _____?
2. I'm not thirsty, thank you. I have _____ had a glass of water. (two minutes ago)
3. "Don't forget to email your teacher." — "I've _____ sent it! I did it an hour ago."

Part 2: Packing for the School Trip

Look at Sofia's checklist for the weekend excursion. Complete the sentences below using the present perfect form of the verb in brackets and just, already, or yet.

Task	Status	Time note
Pack warm jumper	Done [x]	2 minutes ago
Buy snacks for the journey	Done [x]	Yesterday
Download the offline map	Not done []	Still to do
Charge portable battery	Not done []	Still to do

4. She _____ (pack) her warm jumper.
5. She _____ (buy) snacks for the journey.
6. She _____ (not download) the offline map _____.
7. She _____ (not charge) the portable battery _____.

Part 3: Spot and Correct the Mistake

Each sentence contains one grammatical mistake with word order or adverb choice. Rewrite each sentence correctly.

8. We haven't already watched the new documentary about Kyiv.

9. Have you yet finished your chemistry assignment?

10. Artem has kicked just the ball into the net!

Part 4: Real-Life Responses

Write a full response to each person using the present perfect with the adverb shown in brackets.

11. Mum: "Please remember to feed the cat before dinner." (already)

12. Teacher: "Is everybody ready to hand in their essays?" (yet / negative)
