WRITING – Page 103

When we write an article, we want to attract and keep the reader's interest.

We can do that by:

1. Having a title that catches the reader's attention.

2. Using descriptive language

Cute, cuddly pandas

An unforgettable experience

Overwhelmed by the beauty

3. Addressing the reader personally

Have you ever wondered

You can see them playing, relaxing and chewing

4. Asking rhetorical questions

Have you ever wondered where those cute, cuddly giant pandas you see in zoos come from?

Why not plan a trip there and see for yourself?

Now, read the PLAN. Complete the guidelines below.

When writing an article describing a place, follow the plan below :

Title – think of an title

Introduction

- give general about the place you are going to

- refer to what makes the place or why you are going to about it

Main part (1 – 2 paragraphs)

- describe the place, the and any other attractions
- give your impression of the and / or describe your

Conclusion

- sum up your opinion by making a comment about the place or by expressing your feelings.

Now, remember to use LINKING WORDS in your writing.
