

MULTI-WORD VERBS

worry about	agree with [*]	look forward to	look at switch on	sit down	look for	think about throw away	give back	look after	look up

01. You _____ something when you must solve a problem.
02. You _____ somebody when he or she is ill.
03. You _____ your friend when he has the same opinion.*
04. You _____ something when you can't find it.
05. You _____ something you have borrowed from a friend.
06. You _____ something you don't need it any more.
07. You _____ something that needs your care and attention.
08. You _____ when you are tired of standing.
09. You _____ a new word in the dictionary.
10. You _____ the TV when you want to watch a film.
11. You _____ the weekend when you had a long week at school.
12. You _____ a picture when you like it very much.

*

agree with someone/something = accept the point of someone. – John does not agree with my answer.
agree on some issue or point of debate. – They agreed on this issue.
agree to demands/queries, or you agree to do something. – He agreed to my demands. / He agreed to join me for the movie.