

B1 TRAINER – TEST 3 - LISTENING PART 1 | Questions 1–7 (Track 42)

Question 1

Girl: I watched three really _____ films this weekend. The first, called 'Heart', was a _____ film set in New York. It was pretty _____, but I couldn't help thinking I'd seen it all before. The next one I watched was called 'Run' and it was an _____ film. I started watching it again _____ it had finished, even though I knew what was going to happen the second time around. Finally, I watched 'The Dark', a _____ film that I found about _____ a kids' cartoon.

Question 2

Girl: How was your trip to the transport museum?

Boy: It was good, thanks, although the special _____ we'd gone there to see about aeroplanes was _____ – there was a _____ with the lights, I think.

Girl: There are so many other things to see there, though.

Boy: That's true. I'd never _____ how old some of the cars were before.

Girl: And some of the trains, too. I spent _____ looking at them when I went.

Boy: Yes, I like them, too, although we _____ get to that part of the museum this time.

Question 3

Boy: Are you going away with your family this summer?

Girl: Yes, but we still haven't decided where yet. My brother's suggested going to the _____ rather than the _____ this year, and I'd _____ to do that, too. I love where we usually go – there's a beautiful lake and things – but we've been there quite _____ now. My parents keep talking about going to _____ somewhere. There'd be lots to do there, but I'm not sure it'd be very _____.

Boy: No, probably not.

Question 4

Boy: Did you go to the show last night?

Girl: I did. It was great, and they played all their best songs. There were so many people there, and we were all dancing together. I was sure my hat was going to _____ and I wouldn't be able to get it back. I ended up putting it in my bag. I had to hold on to that, too, but it still didn't stop my _____ falling out. I had a look for it afterwards, but _____ it anywhere.

Boy: Oh, no!

Question 5

Woman: Hi, how did your _____ go?

Boy: Yeah, fine. They didn't need to do anything.

Woman: Great! So your _____ are all OK then?

Boy: The sight test is _____, actually, Mum – I was having my _____ checked today

Woman: Oh yes, of course. Your dad made the appointments this time, so I _____ remember who you were seeing first. He should be back from the doctor's any minute.

Boy: So are you making the dinner tonight then?

Woman: I am, and it's your favourite – spaghetti.

Boy: Great!

Question 6

Man: This is a message for Annabelle. It's Barker's Bookshop calling – you _____ some books from us last week. One of them's come in, but the other two won't be in until Thursday, I'm _____. The one called 'Make your own Fashion' is taking _____ than we expected, and I think we told you that 'Saving Tigers' is quite an old book, so is _____ to find. It's _____ to you whether you want to get The History of Sandham Castle now or wait until the others come in. OK, bye.

Question 7

Girl: Do you still play basketball?

Boy: I do, but I'm ready for a _____. I've always fancied trying golf, but there isn't really anywhere _____ here where you can play. So that's why I've decided on _____ instead.

Girl: They're looking for players at my _____ club – why don't you come for a practice there one day. I mean, you love watching it.

Boy: I do, but it always seems pretty _____ to me and you don't really wear anything to _____ you, do you?

Girl: Not really, no. That's why it's so good!
