Hotel rooms usually contain a bed and a table, a mirror, a toilet and a shower, a television, a refrigerator with a mini-bar, some facilities to make hot drinks and a hair-dryer.

2 What items do you like to have in a hotel room?

I like a hotel room to have air conditioning and a television. But usually when I am on vacation I spend most of my time away from the hotel, and only go there to sleep and wash myself. So a good bed and curtains, and a powerful shower are really good things to have in a hotel room!
