

Paragraph detectives

Read “Sharing your Past” in your textbook. Drag each paragraph card to its topic.

PARAGRAPH CARDS

Paragraph A

Paragraph B

Paragraph C

Paragraph D

Paragraph E

Paragraph F

TOPICS

The first lifelogger

Samuel Pepys’s diary

People who write diaries
today

Problems with sharing

Lifelogging today

Staying safe online

DROP HERE

Say: “We think it is paragraph ...”

No writing needed.

Work together. Take turns. One student enters your group answers.

Yes, No or Don't Know?

Read each statement. Click ONE answer. Don't Know = the article does not tell us.

1. Pepys wrote his diary in the seventeenth century.

Yes

No

Don't Know

2. Pepys wrote about kings and queens.

Yes

No

Don't Know

3. Some children and young adults write diaries.

Yes

No

Don't Know

4. Gordon Bell shared his photos on social media.

Yes

No

Don't Know

5. The writer says everyone is a lifelogger today.

Yes

No

Don't Know

6. Employers often search for your name online.

Yes

No

Don't Know

7. You can delete everything you shared online.

Yes

No

Don't Know

8. The writer thinks we should share everything online.

Yes

No

Don't Know

Work together. Take turns. One student enters your group answers.