

1 Write the correct preposition.

- 1 Tabitha is tired of listening to that band.
- 2 Rose is afraid of reading horror stories.
- 3 Lee is good at playing bass.
- 4 Jackie is interested in joining our social club.
- 5 Teri is keen on starting judo classes.
- 6 Max is crazy about skateboarding.
- 7 Megan is bad at remembering birthdays.

2 Add a prefix, un or dis, to the adjectives if necessary. If no prefix is needed, put – .

- 1 That noise is really unpleasant. Shut the window!
- 2 Sometimes friends can say diskind things to each other, like 'You're silly.'
- 3 We're great friends. We always disagree about everything.
- 4 They're so unreliable. They never do the things they promise to.
- 5 I dropped my passport, but someone found it. I was really unlucky.
- 6 There are many things I dislike about school, but I really hate PE.

3 Complete the conversation with a verb from the box in infinitive (to + VERB) or gerund (VERB + ing) form.

book come ~~do~~ drive go hit spend watch

A: So what do you want ¹ to do tonight?

B: How about the cinema. I don't mind ² going.
I can borrow my dad's car.

A: Sounds good. There's a comedy on at eight. Do you think your sister would like ³ to watch?

B: Not sure. She's not very keen on ⁴ watching films on the big screen.

A: Really? That's crazy. ⁵ Driving to the cinema is the best way to watch a film.

B: I agree, but some people don't enjoy ⁶ spending their money on something they can watch at home.

A: Well, I can't stand my brother ⁷ pressing the pause button every five minutes. Anyway, I think we need ⁸ to book the tickets in advance...

4 Order the words to make sentences. Put the VERB in the gerund if necessary.

1 of / LOSE / with / friends / afraid / touch / I'm

I'm afraid of losing touch with friends.

2 good / I'm / COOK / at

I'm good at cooking.

3 I / GET / can't / early / stand / up

I can't get up early.

4 want / I / several / to / continents / VISIT

I want to visit several continents.