

Airport Dialogues

Listen to the conversation carefully:

Situation: A passenger checks in, confirms personal information, and gets a boarding pass.

At the Check-In counter

Listen here

Agent: Good morning! Where are you flying today?

Passenger: Good morning! I'm flying to New York.

Agent: May I see your passport and booking confirmation, please?

Passenger: Of course. Here they are.

Agent: Thank you. Is your full name Alex Johnson?

Passenger: Yes, that's correct.

Agent: And are you traveling with one suitcase?

Passenger: Yes, just one suitcase and a backpack.

Agent: All right. Please put your suitcase on the scale.

Passenger: Sure. Is it too heavy?

Agent: No, it's fine. Your suitcase is within the weight limit. Would you prefer a window seat or an aisle seat?

Passenger: A window seat, please.

Agent: No problem. Here's your boarding pass. Your flight departs from Gate 12 at 10:00 a.m.

Passenger: Thank you! What time should I be at the gate?

Agent: Please be there at least 30 minutes before departure.

Passenger: Great. Have a nice day!

Agent: You too. Have a safe flight!

Reading Comprehension

- Check the dialogue and then answer these questions:

At the Check-In counter

Listen here

1. Where is Alex flying today?

2. What two documents does the agent ask to see?

3. What is the passenger's full name?

4. How many bags is Alex traveling with, and what are they?

5. What does the agent ask Alex to put on the scale?

6. Is the suitcase over the weight limit?

7. Which type of seat does Alex choose?

8. Which gate does the flight depart from?

9. What time does the flight depart?

10. How early should Alex arrive at the gate?

Vocabulary Study

- Study the words and definitions:

At the Check-In counter

Departure - The time when a plane, train, or bus leaves.

Gate - The place at the airport where passengers wait to board their plane.

Boarding pass - A document or digital pass you need to get on the plane.

Window seat - A seat beside the airplane window.

Aisle seat - A seat beside the passage between rows.

Weight limit - The maximum weight allowed.

Check in - To register for a flight and receive your boarding pass.

Safe flight - A friendly expression meaning you hope someone's journey goes well.