Disclaimer: This resource has been made for the purpose of teaching English language learners. We know that students can be learning English in many different places, in many different ways and at any age, so we try to keep these resources as general as possible.

There are many acronyms associated with English language teaching. These include (but are not limited to) ELT, TEFL, EFL, ELL, EAL and ESOL. While the term ESL may not fully represent the linguistic backgrounds of all students, it is the most widely recognised term for English language teaching globally. Therefore, we use the term 'ESL' in the names of our resources to make them easy to find but they are suitable for any student learning to speak English.

6. A person who buys something from a shop or business.

7. A large shop with many different sections, like clothes, toys, and food.

8. A small plastic card you use to pay for things and pay it back later.

9. A person who helps customers in a shop.

10. To require an amount of money that you must pay to buy something.

Activity 2

For each question, choose the best answer.

A Shopping Trip

Last Saturday, I went to the shopping centre with my friends. We wanted to 1 some new clothes because there were end of year sales and a lot of 2 at our favourite shop. When we walked in, a 3 said 'hi' and showed us the sale section. I found a jacket I liked and the 4 was much cheaper than usual.

I tried it on and decided to buy it. At the counter, the assistant gave me a 5 after I paid. My friend wanted to look for a gift for her mum, so we visited the 6 where they had a 'buy one get one free' on novels.

Shopping was fun! But I spent all my money. So for the next few months I'm going to start saving again.
