

Here is a complete IELTS Listening Section 3 practice module based on the audio transcript, formatted according to official IELTS exam specifications.

IELTS Listening Section 3

Questions 21–30

Questions 21–25

Choose the correct letter, A, B, or C.

21. What triggered the nationwide student protests across France?

- A Proposed increases in university tuition fees
- B Issues with overcrowding, lack of teachers, and bad facility conditions
- C New government regulations regarding social media usage

22. According to the news report, why has summer weather become a problem for schools?

- A Buildings are not designed to cope with extreme high temperatures.
- B Final exams have to be permanently canceled every year.
- C Air conditioning units in most high schools have broken down.

23. What concern do students from less elite lycées express about the university admission system?

- A The application deadlines are too short for students from rural areas.
- B It relies too heavily on manual evaluations by government officials.
- C The automated computer process favors applicants from prestigious schools.

24. Catherine Field mentions that left-wing political figures are

- A advising students to stop protesting and write letters to MPs instead.
- B actively supporting the demonstrations at the protest sites.
- C working with the government to draft a compromise budget.

25. Why is it unlikely that the protests will end quickly?

- A Students have planned a national strike that will last all summer.
- B The upcoming presidential elections are creating high political tension.
- C Parliament has already passed the controversial education cuts.

Questions 26–30

Complete the summary below.

Write NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS AND/OR A NUMBER for each answer.

Main Causes and Impacts of the French School Movement

- Class Sizes: In several schools, student numbers have increased to more than 26 _____ per class.
- Extreme Weather: Heatwaves occasionally force authorities to 27 _____ final exams at short notice because classrooms lack proper insulation.
- Work Experience: Students without local 28 _____ find it particularly difficult to secure apprenticeships.
- Security & Foreign Influence: Intelligence officials recently warned political leaders about Russia's potential to cause 29 _____ via online platforms.
- Historical Context: Current student momentum is being compared to the major societal shifts triggered by student protests in the year 30 _____.