

Collocations

Vocabulary practice

Study the vocabulary box

Academic & Formal Writing

- Draw a conclusion
- Establish a connection
- Pose a question
- Present an argument
- Reach a consensus
- Conduct research
- Raise awareness
- Lend support
- Offer insight
- Demonstrate understanding

Business & Professional

- Bear responsibility
- Reach an agreement
- Meet expectations
- Gain a competitive edge
- Take initiative
- Set a precedent
- Deliver results
- Address an issue
- Face a challenge
- Implement a strategy

Nature, Society, and Abstract Concepts

- Pose a threat
- Cause concern
- Spark controversy
- Warrant attention
- Offset the impact

People and Behavior

- Hold a grudge
- Bear a resemblance
- Play a role
- Exert control
- Show appreciation
- Harbor doubts
- Take pride in
- Display courage
- Foster trust
- Win approval

Emotions & Reactions

- Feel compelled
- Experience discomfort
- Suppress anger
- Express concern
- Convey emotion
- Nurture hope
- Trigger anxiety
- Radiate confidence
- Relieve tension
- Instill fear

SECTION 1: Academic & Formal Writing 🏠

Complete the sentences using the correct verb in the appropriate tense: conduct, draw, pose, raise, establish.

- 1- After months of gathering data and analyzing the surveys, the researchers were able to a solid conclusion.
- 2- The team of scientists decided to extensive research on renewable energy solutions before publishing their report.
- 3- Plastic waste in the oceans continues to a serious question about our global consumption habits.
- 4- The environmental campaign succeeded in its primary goal: to public awareness about endangered species.

SECTION 2: Business & Professional

Complete the sentences using the correct verb in the appropriate tense: bear, meet, gain, address, implement.

- 1- As the senior project manager, she had to full responsibility for the unexpected delay in production.
- 2- By adopting cutting-edge technology, the startup managed to a competitive edge over its rivals.
- 3- The company board held an emergency meeting to the issue of declining quarterly sales.
- 4- Unfortunately, the new software features failed to the high expectations of our most demanding clients.

SECTION 3: People and Behavior

Complete the sentences using the correct verb in the appropriate tense: bear, hold, foster, display, harbor.

- 1- Despite their argument ten years ago, he still seems to a grudge against his former business partner.
- 2- The young firefighter was awarded a medal after she extraordinary courage during the rescue operation.
- 3- Looking closely at the photograph, the boy clearly a striking resemblance to his grandfather.
- 4- Effective leaders always try to trust and open communication among their team members.

SECTION 4: Emotions & Reactions

Complete the sentences using the correct verb in the appropriate tense: experience, trigger, relieve, radiate, suppress.

- 1- Hearing loud sirens late at night can often anxiety in people who live in busy urban areas.
- 2- Taking a short walk and doing breathing exercises helped her the tension before her final exam.
- 3- Even though he was furious about the decision, he tried his best to his anger during the meeting.
- 4- As she walked up to the stage to receive her award, she seemed to confidence and enthusiasm.

SECTION 5: Nature, Society, and Abstract Concepts

Complete the sentences using the correct verb in the appropriate tense: spark, offset, bridge, tackle, yield.

- 1- The city council announced a new initiative aimed at taking action to social inequality in low-income neighborhoods.
- 2- The publication of the controversial article served to intense controversy among local politicians.
- 3- After testing several different farming techniques, the new agricultural method finally began to positive results.
- 4- Educational programs can play a vital role in helping to the gap between young people and older generations.