

Making Predictions

Be going to and will

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Complete the following sentences with be going to or will and the verbs in parentheses. Use the context to choose the most appropriate form. Use negative forms where indicated.

1. Look at those dark clouds! It _____ (rain).
2. I think people _____ (live) longer in the future.
3. Watch out! That glass is too close to the edge. It _____ (fall).
4. Maybe our team _____ (win) the championship next year.
5. The baby is yawning and closing her eyes. She _____ (fall) asleep.
6. I believe robots _____ (help) teachers in the future.
7. There is no flour or sugar in the kitchen. We _____ (not / make) a cake with these ingredients.
8. I guess the next exam _____ (not / be) very difficult.
9. Look! Those two cars are heading straight toward each other. They _____ (crash).
10. In my opinion, electric cars _____ (become) more popular in the future.
11. Be careful! That box is too wide for the doorway. It _____ (not / fit) through it.
12. Perhaps scientists _____ (discover) life on another planet one day.
13. The score is 5–0, and there are only ten seconds left. Our team _____ (win).
14. I think printed books _____ (not / disappear) in the future.
15. Look at the dog running toward the pool! It _____ (jump) into the water.
16. She will probably get nervous, but I think she _____ (do) well in the interview.

17. The bus is leaving, and we are still two blocks away. We _____ (not / catch) it.

18. I believe people _____ (not / stop) learning foreign languages.

19. The battery is at 1%, and the screen is flashing. My phone _____ (turn) off soon.

20. I'm sure you _____ (enjoy) your new school.