

Possessive Pronouns Thanksgiving

Fill in the blanks with: my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. I have got a pumpkin. _____ pumpkin is big and orange.
2. Sarah has got a turkey. _____ turkey is in the oven.
3. Tom has got a hat. _____ hat is brown.
4. We have got a big dinner. _____ dinner is on Thursday.
5. The children have got some apples. _____ apples are red.
6. You have got a plate. _____ plate is on the table.
7. My sister has got a pie. _____ pie is delicious.
8. I have got a new apron. _____ apron is white.
9. The dog has got a bone. _____ bone is under the table.
10. Jack has got some potatoes. _____ potatoes are in the kitchen.
11. We have got some candles. _____ candles are on the table.
12. You have got a glass of juice. _____ juice is orange.
13. Emily has got a beautiful dress. _____ dress is purple.
14. My parents have got a big house. _____ house is full of guests.
15. I have got a fork and a knife. _____ fork and knife are next to my plate.
16. Peter has got a slice of pumpkin pie. _____ pie is on a small plate.
17. You and your brother have got some cookies. _____ cookies are delicious.
18. The cat has got a warm blanket. _____ blanket is near the fireplace.
19. We have got some bread for Thanksgiving. _____ bread is fresh.
20. Lucy and Anna have got some flowers. _____ flowers are on the dinner table.

