

LISTENING PART 3 | Questions 14–19 (Track 44)

Hello, everyone! I'd like to tell you about this wonderful acting club I _____ recently. The best thing about it is the _____. We're really lucky to have someone who's actually quite _____. Her name's Alice Fisher, and she's appearing in a play at the big theatre in town _____. She plays a _____ in that, but you'll probably know her better as the _____ in the series 'Green Valley' that was on _____.

She's worked as a _____ theatre actor for about _____ years. As well as having _____ years' experience of appearing in serious _____, she's also spent _____ years working in _____ productions, so has lots of different _____.

The sessions are always fun and are split into two sections. In the first part, _____ practising anything to do with _____ of the body, we focus instead on improving how to _____ the voice as an actor. In the second part, we practise our _____ skills. If you're interested in coming to the drama club, you'll need to know where to come, of course. The club actually hires a room from the _____ to run the classes. It's much _____ to do it there than at the _____ or the acting school. The sessions are on _____ evenings.

At the moment, we're practising for a play, which will be on at the Town Theatre soon. Its name is 'The Passenger' and we're hoping that this _____ one will be as popular as the _____ production the club did, which was called '_____'. It was a big success, apparently.

We've got our _____ practice for the new play on the _____ of _____, with audiences able to come and see it from _____ of July for one week.

Thanks for listening
