

- A Replace the words in bold with the correct form of these phrases so the second sentence has a similar meaning to the first sentence.

break down	cope with	cut down on	do away with	do without look forward to	pick up	point out	put in	put up with

- 1 I'm excited to hear the company's announcement about their innovative new product.
I'm looking forward to hearing the company's announcement about their innovative new product.
- 2 After much feedback, the company finally agreed to install a longer-lasting battery in the latest model of the laptop.
The company finally agreed to put in a longer-lasting battery in the latest model of the laptop.
- 3 I can't tolerate all these notifications popping up and distracting me.
I can't put up with all these notifications popping up and distracting me.
- 4 The tech company's latest advert explained the updated features of the product.
The advert pointed out the updated features of the product.
- 5 I don't know if I could even manage one day without my phone!
I couldn't cope with my phone for even one day.
- 6 The electronics crashed in the electric vehicle test drive so the car stopped working.
The electric car broke down because the electronics crashed in the (electric vehicle) test drive.
- 7 Redesigning the platform in such a short space of time was too much for the design team.
The design team couldn't put up with redesigning the platform in such a short space of time.
- 8 I'm trying to get my daughter to reduce her screen time.
I'm trying to get my daughter to cut down on her screen time.
- 9 'Hi there. Your new smartwatch has arrived in store. When are you available to come and get it?'
'Hi there. Your new smartwatch has arrived instore. When are you available to come and pick up ?
- 10 The company has got rid of their old music streaming platform to make way for a better one.
The company has done away with their old music streaming platform to make way for a better one.