

Exercise 2: Put the verbs in brackets in the correct form

Write the correct form of each verb in brackets to complete the first conditional sentences.

1. If she (want) to experience great happiness, she should look after her physical health.
2. If you (not get) enough sleep, you might feel stressed out.
3. He may overcome his anxiety if he (be) optimistic.
4. If she (consult) a counsellor, she might feel better soon.
5. You must (prioritise) your urgent tasks if you want to meet your deadlines.
6. If Tom (not manage) his schedule well, he might miss the due date.
7. If Mai (eat) too much fast food, she might gain weight.
8. If he (not work) out regularly, his physical health will suffer.
9. We can maintain a well-balanced life if we (divide) our time effectively.
10. If the student (stay) up late tonight, she shouldn't expect to be awake and alert tomorrow.