

PHRASAL VERBS

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the phrasal verb from the box.

turn down	wake up	come across put on	call off	get over fill in	break down	pick up grow up	turn off	run out of try on	set up	put off
get along with	take off	bring up turn up	work out	turn on

A Weekend to Remember

Last Friday, I (1) _____ at 6:00 a.m. because my family and I were going on a weekend trip. Before leaving home, I (2) _____ my younger brother from school because he had forgotten his backpack there.

We planned to leave at noon, but we had to (3) _____ our departure until 2:00 p.m. because our car (4) _____ on the way to the airport. While my father was waiting for the mechanic, my mother (5) _____ the radio to listen to the news. Unfortunately, we (6) _____ drinking water, so we stopped at a supermarket to buy some.

When we arrived at the hotel, I (7) _____ my jacket because the weather was very warm. Then, I (8) _____ a comfortable T-shirt and shorts. Later, while exploring the town, I (9) _____ a lovely little bookshop that sold interesting souvenirs.

The next morning, our tour guide helped us (10) _____ a small table and chairs for a picnic. Before starting our activity, we had to (11) _____ a registration form with our personal information.

At the picnic, my brother told us that he wanted to become a professional chef when he (12) _____. My parents encouraged him to follow his dreams. They also reminded him that he needed to (13) _____ his fear of speaking in public.

In the afternoon, we visited a shopping centre. I wanted to buy a pair of trainers, so I (14) _____ them before deciding whether to buy them. However, I (15) _____ the shop assistant's offer of an expensive pair because they cost too much.

That evening, our guide (16) _____ an interesting subject during dinner: the importance of protecting the environment. We all shared our opinions. Fortunately, my brother and I (17) _____ each other very well, so we enjoyed discussing our ideas.

On Sunday, we planned to go hiking, but the organizers (18) _____ the activity because of a dangerous storm. Instead, we decided to exercise at the hotel. We followed an online video and (19) _____ for about thirty minutes.

Before going to bed, I (20) _____ the television and checked that all the lights were off. The following morning, we waited for the hotel bus, but it never arrived at the scheduled time. It finally (21) _____ forty minutes late!