ERWIN´S LIFE

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A. Erwin James is a highly respected journalist and writer. For many years, he has written a regular column for a national newspaper and his columns have been collected into two successful books. But James had a difficult childhood after the death of his mother in 1964, when he was only seven years old. When he was eleven years old, he was taken away from his family home and put into care.

B. James spent his teenage years drifting from one place to another, with no permanent home and no long-term job. He also committed violent offences. Finally, in 1984, he committed a very serious crime and was sentenced to 25 years in jail.

C. He spent his first year in solitary confinement and became aware of what he had done. He decided to do everything possible to turn his life around. He exercised regularly in his cell and spent long periods of time thinking about how he could change his life.

D. Two years later he began to use the resources available in prison to develop the education that he had never received as a child. He took a degree course in History and graduated in 1994. In the same year he wrote an article for the national newspaper and in 1999 he began to write a regular column for another national newspaper.
