READING

I. Read the following passage and write ONE suitable word in each blank.

Michaela is a typical secondary school student with an active personality who likes (1) _____ the violin and piano. She talked about how stress seemed to outweigh everything else in her life. She feels anxious about her classes. She's worried (2) _____ the hours of homework that each of those subjects requires. She's worried about not getting enough sleep because of the number of responsibilities she needs to take, from schoolwork to extracurricular activities, in order to get into an outstanding school after graduation. "It all takes time," she explains, and a lack of time causes a great deal of stress. Michaela wanted to know (3) _____ caused other teenagers to be stressed, (4) _____ she decided to question them. She interviewed around 160 teens from around the world to find out. She was a bit shocked by the results. She realised that many of them were stressed about the same things that she was. (5) _____, what surprised her was how open they were about the issues that they were facing up with. They were not sharing with their parents, teachers, or counsellors.
