🌱 Lily and the Beanstalk

One day Lily's mother says, "We are very poor. Please take our goat to the town and sell her." Lily walks across the field to the river. An old woman is on the bridge. "That's a beautiful goat," she says. "Would you like these three special beans? Give me your goat and take the beans."

Lily is pleased with the beans. But at home her mother is very cross. She throws the beans out of the window. "Go to bed!" she shouts.

In the morning Lily is surprised. There is a huge beanstalk opposite her window! The top of the beanstalk is above the clouds. Lily puts on her jacket and climbs up.

At the top there is an enormous castle. Lily opens the large door and walks quietly inside. An ugly giant is asleep in a big armchair. Next to him there is a tiny white goose in a gold cage.

"Please help me!" says the goose. "I'm thirsty and I can't open my wings." Lily opens the cage, picks up the goose and climbs down quickly.

Just then the giant opens his eyes. "Where is my goose?" he roars. He is very noisy! Lily takes an axe and chops down the beanstalk.
