ENGLISH WORKSHEET: RELATIVE PRONOUN "WHO"

Name: _____ Date: _____

💡 GRAMMAR BOX: REMEMBER!

We use WHO when we talk about PEOPLE to add extra information about them.
Example: A teacher is a person who works in a school. (Un profesor es una persona que trabaja en un colegio).

1. CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION

Read the sentence and choose the correct verb to complete the detail.

1. A doctor is a person who _____ sick people.
[ ] a) plays [ ] b) helps [ ] c) cooks

2. A chef is a person who _____ delicious food.
[ ] a) cooks [ ] b) drives [ ] c) sings

3. A pilot is a person who _____ planes.
[ ] a) paints [ ] b) flies [ ] c) reads

4. A firefighter is a person who _____ fires.
[ ] a) stops [ ] b) draws [ ] c) eats

2. MATCH THE TWO COLUMNS

Match the person in Column A with the description in Column B using lines.

Column A	Column B
1. An artist is someone...	A. ...who scores goals in a match.
2. A singer is a person...	B. ...who paints beautiful pictures.
3. A mechanic is someone...	C. ...who sings nice songs.
4. Football players are people...	D. ...who fixes broken cars.

3. COMBINE SENTENCES USING "WHO"

Join the two short sentences into one long sentence using who.

> Example: I have a friend. She likes swimming. ➔ I have a friend who likes swimming.

1. I know a boy. He plays the guitar very well.
➔ I know a boy _____
.

2. This is the teacher. She helps me with my homework.
➔ This is the teacher
_____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Look at that girl. She is wearing a red hat.
➔ Look at that girl

_____.

4. I have a neighbor. He has three dogs.
➔ I have a neighbor

_____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS