Listening Comprehension
Short Story: The Haunted House

Listen to this story:

1. Listen to the story and select the correct option (A, B or C) for each question

1. What are Daniel and Jared's real roles in the story?
   a. They're both police officers inspecting the house for an intruder report.
   b. They're both supernatural activity amateurs searching for a ghost in the property.
   c. They're neighbours of the Rosemund family helping them to look for the source of the noise in their house.

2. What happened when they entered the house?
   a. They split up to search in different places of the house for clues and belongings of the spirit.
   b. They stayed together and looked through the attic and the basement.
   c. They split up to search for the intruder in different rooms of the house.

3. What did Jared find in the hidden compartment of the attic floor?
   a. A bag full of old smelly clothes and dirt.
   b. Old pictures and books which belonged to the family.
   c. A box full of the old owner's belongings.

4. What happened by the time Daniel heard the screams for help?
   a. Jared was shoved downstairs by the stranger.
   b. Jared was running downstairs and escaping from the stranger.
   c. Daniel saw Jared and the stranger fighting and called the police.

5. What happened at the end of the story?
   a. They both ran and hid from the stranger until he stopped searching for them.
   b. They called the police and alerted the family about the stranger living in the walls.
   c. They escaped the scene alerting everyone with their screams and called the authorities.

LIVEWORKSHEETS