Part A: Climate Zones of Europe (Questions 1–10)

1. Which climate zone is found in Northern Europe?
A. Mediterranean Climate
B. Polar (Tundra) Climate
C. Tropical Climate
D. Desert Climate

2. Countries around the Mediterranean Sea usually experience:
A. Cold winters and cool summers
B. Hot, dry summers and mild, wet winters
C. Heavy rainfall all year
D. Very cold temperatures all year

3. The Marine West Coast Climate is mainly influenced by:
A. Desert winds
B. Ocean currents and westerly winds
C. Volcanoes
D. Earthquakes

4. Which climate zone is suitable for growing grapes and olives?
A. Polar
B. Highland
C. Mediterranean
D. Tundra

5. Which climate has warm summers, cold winters, and rainfall throughout the year?
A. Humid Continental
B. Desert
C. Tropical Rainforest
D. Polar

6. Which mountain range has a Highland Climate?
A. Alps
B. Ural Mountains
C. Carpathian Mountains
D. Both A and C

7. Which climate zone receives the least amount of rainfall?
A. Marine West Coast
B. Mediterranean

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. Steppe
D. Humid Continental

8. The warm ocean current that helps keep Western Europe mild is called:
A. Labrador Current
B. Gulf Stream (North Atlantic Drift)
C. California Current
D. Peru Current

9. Which European region experiences the coldest climate?
A. Southern Europe
B. Northern Europe
C. Western Europe
D. Central Europe

10. Climate greatly affects Europe's:
A. Farming activities
B. Population
C. Economy
D. All of the above

LIVEWORKSHEETS