

Read the email. What is Maya's news? Choose the correct options (a–e).

Hi Drew!

How are [1] ..... ? I [2] ..... you're well.

A few things have happened here [3] ..... . I've [4] ..... finished my exams. I was really stressed about them, but I think they went well. Now I've got three months off before the new university year starts. I need some money so I've got a summer job in a restaurant. It's hard work, but I like the people there.

My other [5] ..... news is that I've finally got a car! Now I don't have to take two buses to town. It's brilliant. It's only a cheap car, but I love it because it's all mine.

That's [6] ..... my news for now. Say hello to everyone there [7] ..... .

All the [8] ..... ,

Maya

a She's got a car.
b She's moved to a new home.
c She's finished her exams.
d She's got a job.
e She's lost her job.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the email with the words in the box.

all	best	big	for me	hope
just	recently	things

You are going to write a reply to Maya from Drew with Drew's news. Choose two or three pieces of news from below.

- forgot something important
- got a new job
- had an accident
- learnt a new skill
- lost something
- made a new friend
- moved home
- started a new hobby

Plan your email. Decide these things.

- how to start your email
- the order of news
- useful phrases you can use
- how to end your email

Write the email from Drew to Maya. Write 80–120 words.

LIVEWORKSHEETS