IELTS Writing

In many large cities, the population is growing rapidly, making them increasingly difficult places to live.
What problems does this cause, and what measures can be taken to address them?

Traffic congestion, air pollution and overcrowding are becoming increasingly serious problems in major cities.
What are the main causes of these problems, and how can they be solved?

More and more people are choosing to live in megacities. Do the advantages of living in a megacity outweigh the disadvantages?

Some people believe that private cars should be banned from city centres in order to reduce traffic congestion and air pollution.
To what extent do you agree or disagree?

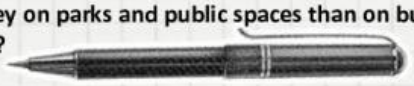

Some cities are introducing car-free zones in central areas. What are the advantages and disadvantages of this development?

Governments should invest more money in public transport rather than building new roads. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

It is better for families with children to live in the countryside than in large cities. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

Some people choose to live in small towns or villages and commute to work in large cities.
What are the advantages and disadvantages of this lifestyle?

City authorities should spend more money on parks and public spaces than on building new residential areas.
To what extent do you agree or disagree?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS